Change Management

Leveraging the benefits of Silos Interdependence

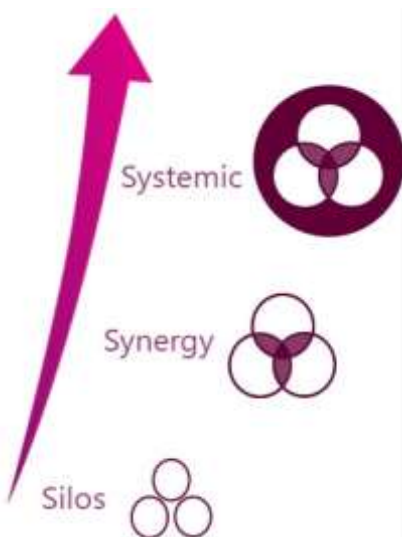

We believe

- Optimizing the whole generates more than maximizing the parts
- Long Term Purpose balance Short Term Profit

Our action

Change company culture thru individual mindset

- From either/or to AND
- From I want to I CONTRIBUTE
- From competition to COLLABORATION

What we do:

- Act on your culture, structure and governance to serve a net positive group model
- Stimulate collective intelligence by establishing a culture of collaborative processes
- Develop employee and responsibility through Management 3.0 technique
- Put the right person at the right place based on intrinsic motivation assessment
- Reduce side effects of silo's influence by designing transversal marketing strategies
